

Hi Valued Partner,

It is my pleasure to welcome you and your team to the [REDACTED] family!

My name is Patrick Wilson. Over the next few months, my event sales team and I will serve as your guide for a number of exciting and informative [REDACTED] events and publications — many of which will allow your company to promote your services and directly connect with [REDACTED] leaders all across the country. I've highlighted some of these upcoming opportunities below for your reference.

Please let me know if you have any questions about the opportunities listed below, and I will connect you with a member of my event sales team who can provide you with more information.
